Glendover provides full opportunity for participation for all parents in the following ways:

- Numerous programs/activities are offered through the Family Resource Center, as well as Curriculum Night and other school programs such as Open House and PTA meetings.
- Vouchers and child care are provided by the Family Resource Centers so that parents can attend the activities mentioned above.
- The Title I Social Worker, Child Guidance Specialist, and Family Resource Center Coordinator carry out home visits as needed.
- Volunteer opportunities are available for all parents who wish to help in the classroom or with school/PTA activities. Please check with the office for information regarding required background checks.
- Family counseling is provided for families in need through a grant between the Family Resource Center and the University of Kentucky.

Glendover provides full opportunity for the participation of parents with limited English proficiency in the following ways:

- A bilingual Attendance Clerk and Fayette County Public Schools-approved translators are utilized to communicate with parents during conferences, home visits, and to interpret during school performances.
- Bilingual letters/newsletters are sent home.
- A Hispanic Curriculum Night is held annually.
- The Family Resource Center plans programs that are specifically designed to meet the needs of our Spanish-speaking parents and students.

Glendover provides full opportunity for the participation of parents with disabilities in the following ways:

- The building is fully handicapped accessible.
- The clinic bathroom and one adult bathroom have been adapted to meet the needs of individuals with disabilities and all student bathrooms are wheelchair accessible.
- Door handles and to all schoolrooms are handicapped accessible.
- Transportation is provided as needed.
- Referrals are made by the Family Resource Center, the Child Guidance Specialist, and the Social Worker to outside agencies to provide help for families.

Sincerely,
Catherine E. Fine, Ed.D., Principal
